CAMPUS DIALOGUE
TO FEATURE UM'S
VP WILLIAM CRAIG

MISSOULA---

Dr. William G. Craig, academic vice-president at the University of Montana, will discuss "Issues Confronting the University" Thursday (Jan. 15) in a campus dialogue session at the Lutheran Student Center, 532 University Ave.

Thursday's program is sponsored by campus pastors, including Rev. William Kliber, Methodist campus pastor; Rev. David Van Dyck, pastor of the United Campus Christian Fellowship, and Jonathan Nelson, Lutheran campus pastor.

Rev. Nelson said the discussion "is a chance for informal exchange about the decisions and priorities facing the University of Montana in the days ahead."

The program is open to the public without charge.
