GREAT FALLS BRANCH OF AAUW
ANNOUNCES $500 SCHOLARSHIP
AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA---

Dozens of University of Montana coeds from Cascade County are among those eligible to compete for the fifth annual $500 scholarship from the Great Falls Branch of the American Association of University Women.

The AAUW branch in the Electric City announced the scholarship competition for the 1970-71 academic year.

The scholarship, awarded to a worthy Cascade County woman student already in college, will be based on scholarship, character and financial need. Applicants to be considered must be women presently in their sophomore or junior year at Montana colleges and universities or graduate students or teachers in need of additional education.

Completed applications must be mailed to the Great Falls AAUW, in care of Mrs. Ruth F. Lomica, Scholarship Chairman, 3304 7th Avenue North, Great Falls, Mont. 59401. Applications, in order to be considered, must be in her hands no later than March 20.

Interested women from Cascade County may obtain applications and further information at the Dean of Students Office, Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula 59801.
