DETROIT WOMAN TO MC
MATRIX HONOR TABLE APRIL 12

MISSOULA--

The national vice-president for professional chapters of Theta Sigma Phi, journalism women's society, will preside as mistress of ceremonies at the 1970 Matrix Honor Table April 12 at the University of Montana.

Mrs. Hugh W. Harris, special features coordinator for the WWJ Stations in Detroit, will be in Missoula on an official visit to the UM Theta Sigma Phi alumnae and collegiate chapters.

More than 500 Missoula women and UM coeds are expected to attend the traditional Matrix Table, sponsored in Missoula since 1931.

The Matrix Honor Table will be in the Five Valleys Room of the University Center. Reservation deadline for the invitation-only dinner is April 7.

Ponchitta Pierce, a special correspondent for CBS News in New York, will be guest speaker. Awards will be presented to outstanding women of each UM class and to local women recognized for outstanding activity in the community.

Mrs. Harris received a bachelor of arts degree from Grinnell College, Grinnell, Iowa. She serves on the Michigan Women's Commission, Travelers Aid Society of Detroit and the Camp Fire Girls Detroit Area Council besides numerous other civic activities.

She has been vice-president and chairman of the Women's Council of the American Advertising Federation and was chairman of the Communications Conference of the Americas in 1968.

Listed in "Who's Who in American Women" and "Who's Who in the Midwest," Mrs. Harris was named one of Detroit's "Top Ten Women" in 1964 and was the Detroit Soroptomist Woman of the Year in 1965.

Mrs. Harris and her husband, a Detroit customs broker, have one daughter and two sons.
