4TH CHAMBER MUSIC RECITAL
SET FOR APRIL 21 AT UM

MISSOULA--

Seven University of Montana faculty members will be featured in a chamber music recital April 21 in the UM Music Recital Hall.

The program, which begins at 8:15 p.m., is open to the public without charge. The 1969-70 Chamber Music Series is being sponsored by the UM School of Fine Arts and the Department of Music.

UM faculty participating in the concert will include Eugene Andrie, professor of music, violin; Frank Diliberto, part-time music lecturer, double bass; Jerry Domer, assistant professor of music, oboe; Lucien Hut, assistant professor of music, piano; William Manning, acting music department chairman and associate professor of music, clarinet; Edwin Rosenkranz, assistant professor of music, bassoon, and Eugene Weigel, professor of music, viola.

A UM student, Lora Tannenholz, will play the horn in the music program.

Included in the evening's concert will be "Quintet for Winds and Piano, Opus 16" by Beethoven, "Sonata in E flat major, Opus 18 for Violin and Piano" by Richard Strauss, and "Quintet for Winds and Strings, Opus 30" by Prokofieff.
