CHARLEY PRIDE PERFORMING AT U! THURSDAY NIGHT

MISSOULA--

Charley Pride, a well known country and western singer from Great Falls, will perform at the University of Montana Thursday (May 14).

The concert is scheduled for 8:15 p.m. in the U! Field House, announced Lee J. Tickell, University Center Program Director.

Pride will be appearing with Johnny Duncan, a country and western singer from Texas, and Alex Houston, a ventriloquist.

A former baseball player with the Los Angeles Angels, Pride cut his first single in 1965. The following year his recording of "Just Between You and Me" won him a Grammy nomination for the best country and western male vocal performance.

Pride has appeared on a number of television shows, including the Joey Bishop Show and the Lawrence Welk Show.

Tickets for Thursday night's program are on sale at the Cartwheel, the Mercantile, and the UC Ticket Office. Admission is $3.50 and $3 for reserved seats and $2.50 for general admission.
