Course Description

Introduction to the cross-national and comparative study of contemporary political systems. Focus on structural/behavioral similarities and differences, common and diverse aspirations/struggles, globalization and local responses, and domestic-foreign linkages. Reference to major illustrative countries in Europe, the Middle East, Asia (including Central Asia), Africa, and Latin America.

Course Objectives

By the end of the course, students should understand patterns of governance and political diversity/complexity around the world, be able to explain similarities and differences among key political institutions and the role of political culture, be familiar with different theoretical and analytical approaches to the comparative study of political systems, and be capable of interpreting current events based on sound conceptual understanding and empirical grounding. This course also is intended to provide the basic grounding for advanced study of comparative politics at the upper-division level, experience in intercultural and transnational analysis and understanding, and the basis for life-long learning about different political systems and key human concerns and aspirations.

Required Texts

- (1) Charles Hauss. Comparative Politics: Domestic Responses to Global Challenges. [H] Sixth edition, 2009.
  - (2) Fiona Yap (ed.). Comparative Politics 10/11. [CP]
- All other required readings are on e-res. Password: psci220

Course Requirements

Students are expected to complete readings on schedule, to attend class regularly, and to participate in class discussions and debates. Assessment will be based on the following:

- Class participation* (including debates) = 10%
- Journal Observation #1* (due 23 March) = 10%
- Journal Observation #2* (due 25 April) = 10%
- Essay quiz* (29 April) = 10%
- First examination* (16 Feb.) = 20%
- Second examination* (11 March) = 20%
- Third examination* (15 April) = 20%
- Fourth examination* (12 May) = 20%

The highest 3 of the 4 examination grades will be counted in determining final grades for the course. Make-up exams are only possible for documented medical reasons.

Reported final grades will reflect pluses and minuses. For credit/no-credit grading, students must attain an overall grade of D- to receive a "CR." Students must follow the Catalog's policy on incompletes, disability accommodations, and plagiarism. The instructor will deny late-drop petitions (after the 45th day of instruction).
