DAVID M. FISHER
NAMED FIRST VP
OF THEATRE ALLIANCE

MISSOULA---

David M. Fisher, assistant professor of speech communication at the University of Montana, recently was elected first vice president of the Theatre Alliance of America at Weber State College, Ogden, Utah, during the TAA yearly festival.

As first vice president of the TAA, Fisher will become president of the organization next year and he will be in charge of the alliance festival in May 1971.

He has been a speech communication instructor at UM since 1964. Fisher, a native of Salt Lake City, Utah, received his bachelor's degree at the University of Utah there in 1941. He also attended the University of Minnesota, Minneapolis, and was awarded a master's degree at Ball State University, Muncie, Ind., in 1957.

Fisher is author of five short stories that appeared in the Salt Lake Tribune in the early 1940s.
