MISSOULA WOMAN
RECEIVES AWARD
FROM UM GROUP

MISSOULA--

Mrs. Audra Browman of Missoula received the fifth annual citizen's award Tuesday (May 26) from the University of Montana chapter of Phi Delta Kappa, a professional organization for men in teacher education.

Dr. George H. Millis, a UM education professor, said the award, a plaque which was presented to Mrs. Browman during a dinner meeting, is made in memory of the late Cliff Worthen, a teacher at Missoula County High School and former Phi Delta Kappa president, "to a citizen of Western Montana who has made a significant and worthwhile contribution to education."

Keynote speaker at the dinner Meeting was Philip J. Hess, an associate professor of journalism and director of the radio and television department at the University of Montana. Hess discussed "Mass Media and the Citizen's Responsibility."

Mrs. Browman, who is wife of Dr. Ludwig G. Browman, a UM zoology professor, was a member of the Missoula County High School Board from 1959-63. She has been active in Missoula PTA activities and has fostered improvement of library facilities in Missoula and at the University.

She is a charter member of the Missoula League of Women Voters and is a member of the league's Education Committee.
