LIVE ARTS FESTIVAL
TUESDAY TO LAUNCH
UM ART EXHIBIT

MISSOULA--

A live arts festival from 4-6 p.m. Tuesday (June 2) at the University of Montana will launch a three-week art exhibit featuring art work by students from Missoula School District Number 1.

The festival will be from 4-6 p.m. Tuesday in the University Center Mall. Boys and girls from grades 1-8 will be working in various art media during the two-hour program.

Following the festival, the art exhibit will be open to the public daily from 8 a.m.-8 p.m. through June 22 in the University Center Gallery.

The art festival and display, both open to the public without charge, are under the direction of Mrs. Evelyn Lail, school district art director during the 1969-70 academic year.

Featured during Tuesday's live arts festival will be ceramics, stitchery, jewelry, tie-dye, paintings, sculpture, prints, and macrame, an ancient French technique of making knotted lace.

Mrs. Lail said the art work to be displayed through June 22 "is representative of the nearly 7,200 students from grades 1-8" in the local school district.
