MISSOULA--

A total of 1,557 degrees will be awarded Sunday during the 73rd Annual Commencement at the University of Montana.

Commencement exercises will begin at 2 p.m. in the Harry Adams Field House. Jack Vaughn, U.S. ambassador to Colombia and former Peace Corps director, will receive an honorary doctorate in science.

The total of 1,557 degree candidates includes 1,227 bachelor's degree candidates, 272 master's degree candidates, 24 doctoral candidates, and 34 candidates for the juris doctorate, an advanced professional degree.

Deans at the University who are scheduled to present the degree candidates include Dr. Richard A. Solberg, College of Arts and Sciences; Dr. Rudyard B. Goode, School of Business Administration; Dr. J. Francis Rummel, School of Education; Dr. Charles W. Bolen, School of Fine Arts; Dr. Arnold W. Bolle, School of Forestry; Dr. Warren J. Brier, School of Journalism; Robert E. Sullivan, School of Law; Dr. Robert L. Van Horne, School of Pharmacy, and Dr. John M. Stewart, Graduate School.

Jack L. Hoover, director of admissions, is commencement coordinator. Vincent Wilson, a professor of health, physical education and recreation, is chairman of the UM Commencement Committee.

Other 1970 commencement activities on the Missoula campus include:
Saturday, June 6—Army Reserve Officer Training Corps commissioning exercises, 10 a.m., Music Recital Hall; Prizes and Awards Assembly, 5 p.m., University Center Montana Rooms; reception by the University for the graduating class and relatives, UM alumni and friends, 5:45 p.m., University Center Five Valleys Room; commencement dinner, 6:30 p.m., University Center Five Valleys Room. Commencement dinner tickets may be purchased for $3.50 each through June 5 at the University Center Information Desk.

Concluding 1970 graduation activities will be the commissioning of the Air Force ROTC students June 9. That event is slated for 10 a.m. in the University Center Montana Rooms. Dr. Earl C. Lory, UM chemistry professor and former acting academic vice president at UM, will give the commissioning address. Thirteen AFROTC students are scheduled to receive the bar of second lieutenant.
