TENNIS COURSE
OFFERED AT UM
DURING SUMMER SESSION

MISSOULA-----

A one-credit course in advanced coaching techniques for tennis will be offered from June 29-July 3 at the University of Montana during the UM Summer Session.

The class will meet from 3:40-5:40 p.m. Monday through Friday under the instructorship of Dr. Brian J. Sharkey, an associate professor of health, physical education and recreation at UM. Extra practice sessions and competitive matches also will be scheduled.

The advanced course is intended to improve teaching and coaching skills as well as develop individual playing skills and tactics. Dr. Sharkey suggests that those registered for credit should take the course in conjunction with P.E. 215, Tennis, Advanced Professional Preparation.

The first class meeting will be in room 107 of the Women's Center. After July 29, classes will be held on the UM Tennis Courts, just north of the University Center.
