298 DEMOLAY REPRESENTATIVES
EXPECTED AT UM
FOR 40TH CONCLAVE

MISSOULA--

A total of 298 DeMolay representatives are scheduled to participate in the 40th annual State DeMolay Conclave Thursday through Saturday (June 18-20) at the University of Montana.

DeMolay is a secret society associated with the Masonic orders for boys from ages 14 to 21.

Francis M. Superneau, Missoula, conference director and state dad adviser, said the DeMolay Conclave "gives the boys an opportunity to get together and renew their commitment to the doctrines we live by."

Registration will be Thursday (June 18) between 10 a.m.-5 p.m. at Craig Hall on the UM campus.

Formal opening of the conference will be at 6:30 p.m. Thursday in the UM Music Recital Hall, with introductions and welcomes from Missoula Mayor Richard G. Shoup; Dr. Richard A. Solberg, dean of the UM College of Arts and Sciences; Superneau; Gordon Darlington, Three Forks, chairman of the State DeMolay Advisory Council, and Ronald L. Molen, Missoula, conclave chairman.

Chandler C. Cohagen, Billings, executive officer of Montana DeMolay, will deliver the welcoming address at 6:30 p.m. Thursday.

Special guests to be honored at the conclave include, Jerry L. Palmer, Kansas City, Kan., public relations director of the international supreme council headquarters; James F.
