78 HIGH SCHOOL STUDENTS
TO ATTEND UPWARD BOUND
PROGRAM AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

Seventy-eight high school students from Montana and Wyoming are scheduled to participate in the Upward Bound Program at the University of Montana. June 28-Aug. 15.

The following Montana communities are slated to be represented at the seven-week program--Missoula, Florence, Hamilton, Victor, Arlee, St. Ignatius, Butte, Great Falls, Eureka, Ronan, Polson and Browning. Several students also are expected from Wind River, Wyo.

During the program, students will study such subjects as ecology, psychology, chemistry, contemporary problems, journalism, typing, mathematics, speech, French, art and ethnic sociology.

A number of the students will participate in the Bridge Program as part of this summer's Upward Bound curricula. The students, high school graduates, will study mathematics, English and biology on the college freshman level.

Independent studies also are permitted during the seven-week program. One student will study computer programming and photography. Six courses also are being offered in physical education and recreation, and all participants will be required to take reading and discussion sessions three times a week.

Duane C. Dornack is Upward Bound director at the University.
