18 CORONARY CARE NURSING TEACHERS
IN TRAINING PROGRAM AT UM

MISSOULA-

Eighteen teachers of coronary care nursing recently participated in a three-day colloquium on evaluation of coronary care nurse training at the University of Montana.

The three-day program from June 18-20 involved the study of training objectives and teaching techniques. Resource leader for the program was Dr. Agnes Rezler, who is with the Office of Research in Medical Education at the University of Illinois, Chicago.

The colloquium was one in a series of programs administered by the Western Interstate Commission for Higher Education (WICHE) under the Mountain States Regional Medical Program (MSRMP). The series also includes symposia for physicians and nurses. The symposia, which deal with heart disease, stroke, cancer and physical therapy, were developed through WICHE-MSRMP to bring recent health care programs to people living beyond large medical centers.

Colloquium director was Dr. Harold A. Braun, M.D., at the Missoula offices of WICHE-MSRMP at St. Patrick Hospital.

Missoula physicians on the instructional staff during the training sessions included:

Dr. Braun, Dr. Gerald A. Diettert, Dr. Walter J. Lewis, Dr. Richard D. Weber and Dr. James E. Gouaux. Also participating was Mrs. Lillian LaCroix, R.N., and Mrs. Vera Wills, R.N., and Dr. Carol Ammons, PhD, and Dr. LeRoy Anderson, PhD.

Teachers of coronary care nursing who participated in the colloquium included:

MONTANA--Mrs. Ella Eastlick, registered nurse (R.N.), Billings; Mrs. Eileen Sahinen, R.N., Butte; Bonnie Pollington, R.N., Kremlin; Mrs. Eileen McFadden, R.N., Libby.
