GIRLS STATERS TO HOLD
STATE PRIMARY ELECTIONS

MISSOULA--

State primary elections will highlight Tuesday's activities at the 23rd Annual Girls State at the University of Montana.

The elections Tuesday evening will follow an afternoon of political activity, including an introduction to state government, party state conventions and filing for state and government offices.

The 327 high school coeds have been divided into groups representing cities, counties and political parties. County officers were elected Monday, and county government activities will continue Tuesday.

Also on Tuesday's program are reports from last year's Girls Nation delegates, and community activities.
