Advanced tennis class rescheduled for July 6-10

University of Montana--Missoula. Office of University Relations

Follow this and additional works at: https://scholarworks.umt.edu/newsreleases

Let us know how access to this document benefits you.

Recommended Citation

This News Article is brought to you for free and open access by the University Relations at ScholarWorks at University of Montana. It has been accepted for inclusion in University of Montana News Releases, 1928, 1956-present by an authorized administrator of ScholarWorks at University of Montana. For more information, please contact scholarworks@mso.umt.edu.
ADVANCED TENNIS CLASS
RESCHEDULED FOR JULY 6-10

MISSOULA--

A one-credit course in advanced coaching techniques for tennis at the University of Montana has been rescheduled for July 6-10 because of a conflict with the state tennis meet.

The class was originally scheduled for the week of June 29-July 3.

The class will meet from 3:40-5:40 p.m. Monday through Friday, with extra practice sessions and competitive matches to be scheduled later.

The course, which is intended to improve teaching and coaching skills as well as develop individual playing skills and tactics, will be taught by Dr. Brian J. Sharkey, an associate professor of health, physical education and recreation at UM.

Dr. Sharkey suggests that those registered for credit take the course in conjunction with P.E. 215, Tennis, Advanced Professional Preparation.

The first class meeting will be in room 107 of the Women's Center. After July 6 classes will be held on the UM Tennis Courts, just north of the University Center.

###