MISSOULA--

The ace hurler on the Whitefish Legion baseball team has accepted an athletic scholarship to the University of Montana in Missoula, Grizzly baseball coach Lem Elway announced Wednesday.

Bob Hayes, a 1970 graduate of Whitefish High School, will enroll at the Missoula university next fall and compete in baseball for the Grizzlies.

Hayes has a 2-1 record this season for Whitefish and is hitting .220. Last year at Libby, he chalked up a 6-2 record and struck out 75 batters in 70 innings. His ERA at Libby was 1.51.

Elway said he feels Hayes has a great deal of potential. "He has a great fastball and good control," the Montana coach said.

He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Hayes of Whitefish.
