Welcome to Drama 101!!

Please address all questions and matters concerning this course to your teaching assistant. Get to know your TA; he/she will be the one constant in this course since you will meet many of the Drama Faculty members and students over the semester. You may leave phone messages for your TA in the Drama/Dance office at x 4481 or in his/her mailbox located in the PAR/TV building. There is also a DRAMA 101 box that contains extra copies of each weekly assignment. It is the last slot at the bottom of the bank of TA boxes located in the PAR/TV building. Please do not put notes or assignments in this box. Instead, use your respective TA's box for all communication with him or her. NOTE: Our boxes are ordered alphabetically by our last names, so please memorize your TA's full name.

REQUIREMENTS:

1. Attendance:

Attendance is required for all scheduled meeting days, Monday evenings, 7:10 pm – 10:00pm. You are permitted one absence, excused or unexcused during the semester. Your final grade will drop one letter for each absence beyond one missed class.

DRAMA 101 Theater Appreciation
Assignment for Monday, September 24
Response to the Ceremony: Connection

As soon as possible after our ceremony in class- perhaps later tonight or tomorrow morning, write down as many notes about your personal journey or experience during our ceremony.

NEXT: Create something- a sketch, a poem, photo, collage, etc. that symbolizes or shows your connection to what happened to you during the ceremony. Consider these points in creating your expression:

1. What expectations did you have before the ceremony?
2. What was your initial reaction to the environment?
3. Were you anxious to share your story with the group?
4. How did the other stories affect you?
5. Describe your state of mind after the ceremony.
6. What meaning do you make from this experience?
7. How does this ceremony relate to theater?

Bring your typewritten notes and your creation that symbolizes your response to the large group class meeting on Monday September 24. PLEASE PUT YOUR NAME ON EVERYTHING AND FASTEN YOUR NOTES TO YOUR CREATION - THANK YOU!!!!

Assignment for Monday, October 1
COSTUME DESIGN

For class on Monday, October 1, please complete the following assignment:

1. Read at least the first scene from either Biloxi Blues or Own Town.
A limited number of these scripts are on reserve at the Mansfield Library.
2. Choose one character to analyze and costume from the play you have read.
3. Do the background research appropriate to the character/time period you have selected. Make photocopies of your sources of research (old magazines, internet sites, etc.)
4. Create a collage of research consisting of a minimum of five visual images. In addition to the photocopies of your research sources, you may include sketches of your costume ideas for the character selected.
5. A brief typewritten description must accompany the collage which includes:
 - a. What you know or can infer about the character
 - b. A description of the costume you envision for the character
 - c. Why your choices are appropriate to the development of the character and the time period you selected.

DRAMA 101 Theater Appreciation
Assignment for Monday, October 29
DIRECTING PROJECT

You are a director and have been given the scene “BREAD” to direct. Please read the attached script. You must become very familiar with the story and decide what path you will take with the cast and designers.

1. Read the script at least three times. Brainstorm a list of spontaneous impressions. Your list should include a variety of images, feelings, colors moods, tastes, smells. There are no wrong answers. Do not edit yourself.
2. Decide the theme of the story. “This story is about...” Support your choice in the paragraph using information and clues from the script. (For example: Cinderella is a story about the victory of human kindness and suffering over the destructive insecurities of a dysfunctional family...)
3. Decide on a metaphor to help explain your interpretation of the story. You are going to a design meeting with your lighting, scenic and costume design team. Your assignment must include an image, photo, swatch of cloth that helps communicate your vision of this story.
4. What is the dominant conflict in the story? Explain in a short typewritten paragraph.

NOTE - THERE WILL BE SEVERAL OTHER ASSIGNMENTS IN THE NEAR FUTURE THAT WILL REFER TO THIS SCRIPT - PLEASE SAVE THIS SCRIPT -THANK YOU !!
