MISSOULA--

Swimming lessons previously scheduled for the Grizzly Pool at the University of Montana have been rescheduled for the Men's Gym.

Fred Stetson, director of aquatics at the University, said the changes in the programs are necessitated by water filter problems at the Grizzly Pool.

The fifth group of swimming sessions will be held Monday, with classes beginning at 10 a.m., 10:45 a.m. and 11:30 a.m. at the gym.

The men's fitness program will be conducted from 5-6 p.m. Monday, Wednesdays and Fridays, and adult lessons Monday through Friday from 6-7 p.m.

The only public swim available will be from 7-9:30 p.m. seven days per week at the Men's Gym.

Stetson said he hopes to have repairs at the Grizzly Pool completed by Sept. 20, so swimming facilities can be reopened to the public by that date.

Stetson said the Missoula Swim Club will conduct workouts at the McCormick Park Pool west of the Orange Street Bridge from 7-9 a.m. Monday through Friday.
