EARLY CHILDHOOD EDUCATION EXPERT
TO SPEAK AT FLATHEAD COMMUNITY COLLEGE

MISSOULA-----

Dr. Alice Keliher, a distinguished visiting professor at Flathead Community College, will give the second in a series of three lectures on early childhood education at Flathead Valley Community College September 18 and 19.

The lectures are sponsored by Head Start, Flathead Community College, the Montana Education Association and the University of Montana.

Dr. Keliher, a retired Distinguished Professor at Wheelock College in Boston, Mass., serves as advisor to the Department of Health, Education and Welfare's Head Start Parent Child Center and Office of Education. She is the author of a series of books for children and Talks With Teachers, which includes a preface by Eleanor Roosevelt.
