HOUSING AVAILABLE
AT U OF MONTANA

MISSOULA--

A University of Montana official today said there are still rooms available in the UM residence halls.

Tom Hayes, residence halls director, said that although off-campus housing "is critical" for fall quarter, "approximately 500 spaces still are available for incoming UM students who wish to stay in UM residence halls."

"University policy requires that all male students under 21 years of age with fewer than 45 credit hours on their academic records, and all coeds under 21 with fewer than 135 credits, live on campus," Hayes said.

Incoming UM students who desire on-campus living accommodations may contact the UM Residence Halls Office, Elrod Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, Mont. 59801, or phone 243-2611. Classes start Sept. 24 at the University.
