ACADEMIC CREDIT GIVEN
FOR HEAD START WORKSHIP;
DR. KELIHER TO SPEAK

MISSOULA--

Dr. Alice Keliher, nationally known educator, will lecture at the Early Childhood Education Workshop Sept. 18-19 at the Flathead Valley Community College, Kalispell.

Sponsored by the Head Start Regional Training office at the University of Montana, Missoula, and the FVCC, the workshop is the second in a series of three. One academic credit is granted to persons completing each of the workshops, according to Mrs. Janet Roberts, regional training officer for Head Start, who has offices at UM.

She said the workshops come under the academic heading of Education Seminar carrying a variable credit value of one to three credits.

Registration fee for the workshop now is $12, to be paid to Dr. Larry Blake at the FVCC.
