ANN AIKEN TO GIVE
SENIOR ORGAN RECITAL
SUNDAY AT UM

MISSOULA--

Ann C. Aiken will present her senior organ recital Sunday (Oct. 4) at 8:15 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall of the University of Montana.

Miss Aiken, who will receive her Bachelor of Music degree in December, will play "Prelude and Fuge in A Minor" and "Leipzig Chorales" by Bach, "Sonata III" by Mendelssohn, "Deuxième Fantaisie" by Alain, and "Symphony in G Major" by Sowerby.

A native of Whitehall, Miss Aiken has been a member of Delta Delta Delta, a social sorority; Mu Phi Epsilon, women's music sorority; Phi Kappa Phi, national scholastic honorary; Alpha Lambda Delta, freshman women's national scholastic honorary; Tanan of Spurs, sophomore women's service honorary; Mortor Board, senior women's national service honorary, and Phi Kappa Lambda, national music honorary.

She was named the Outstanding Senior by Mu Phi Epsilon and also was the Matrix Table 1968 Outstanding Sophomore Woman. Miss Aiken received an honorable mention in the Delta Delta Delta national leadership award competition and an Alpha Lambda Delta certificate for maintaining a 3.5 or B-plus grade point average throughout college.

Miss Aiken has been the recipient of numerous scholarships and awards, including Elks state and local scholarships, UM Worthy Scholar Award, the Whitehall Deschamps Memorial Award, UM Honor Scholarships, music scholarships, Delta Delta Delta scholarships, the Florence Smith Memorial Scholarship and a graduate assistantship.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Aiken of Whitehall. Miss Aiken said she hopes to receive her Master of Music degree and teach organ and other music courses on the college level.

may or may not require matching money but they never involve state funds. They are given directly to individual artists who show exceptional ability. Recipients of these federal grants have included painters, sculptors, composers, writers, choreographers, film makers and researchers in the arts.

He said that the MAC does not select recipients of individual grants but that Edward G. Groenhout, Missoula, executive director of the MAC, can supply information and help to persons interested in applying.

He added that Groenhout is also available to provide counsel and technical aid to Montana arts organizations requesting such assistance.

In addition to the chairman, members of the MAC are Mrs. William Cordingly and Mrs. Eleanor Logan, both of Great Falls; Robert Q. Crebo, Mrs. Blanche Judge and David Shaner, all of Helena; Earl Dahlstrom, Moore; Robert Fehlberg, Mrs. Dorothy Nelstead, Lyndon Pomeroy, and Mrs. Joseph Sample, all of Billings; Skulason Moe, Poplar; Dr. Van Kirke Nelson, Kalispell; Harold Rose, Bozeman, and Mrs. Boyd Taylor, Butte.

CITATION FOR WILLIAM B. JONES

William Jones is being honored tonight for his illustrious legal career. But in this, "The Year of the Grizzly," we would like to reminisce about a less-memorable gridiron season.

Mr. Jones served as director of athletics and football coach at Carroll College in Helena from 1931-33. The Saints downed the mighty Grizzlies in 1931 by a resounding 2-0. The wounds from that defeat are still acute. To bury old grievances, Jack Swarthout, our "Year of the Grizzly" coach, has asked me to convey a challenge to the Honorable Mr. Jones. He has scheduled a spring scrimmage with your 1931 team. Touch football will be acceptable.

Mr. Jones received his law training from Notre Dame University. He served as special assistant to the Attorney General of Montana before accepting his first position with the United States Government in 1937. Since that first appointment, he has worked for the Department of Justice, the Office of Price Administration, and the Joint British-American Patent Interchange Committee.

Mr. Jones enjoyed a private practice in the District of Columbia for several years. But in 1962, he was again tapped for service to his country when the late President John F. Kennedy appointed him Judge of the U.S. District Court for the District of Columbia... a position he still holds.

We ask you to salute this outstanding jurist by welcoming him to the Order of the Grizzly...the Honorable William B. Jones.
