1,550 BOOKS ON DISPLAY
IN UNIVERSITY LIBRARY

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Library will display 1,550 books which have been organized by the Books on Exhibit company and recommended as books which would constitute a model library for the preschool through junior high range.

The books will be on display in the UM Library lobby from Oct. 21 through Nov. 20.

Books on Exhibit operates on a national basis as a service organization to school systems, colleges and educational agencies.

Lawrence W. Hodges, associate professor of education at UM, is in charge of the exhibit on the UM campus.

The books have been organized into a curriculum-related, school-teacher-oriented collection. The books range from basic books at the primary level to books on literature, social studies, science and applied science, arts, crafts and hobbies at the junior high level.

Each book in the exhibit has been recommended by three or more of a dozen reviewing-evaluating sources, according to the Books on Exhibit organization.

Parents and school personnel are invited to visit the display.

UM Library hours are Monday through Thursday, 8 a.m.-midnight; Friday and Saturday, 8 a.m.-10 p.m., and Sunday, 2 p.m.-midnight.
