2 UM FACULTY
TO ENTER WORK
IN SEATTLE EXHIBIT

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana faculty members will be represented in the 56th Annual Exhibition of Northwest Artists Nov. 10-Dec. 13 in Seattle, Wash.

Sculptors Theodore J. Waddell, an assistant professor of art at UM, and Arnold Cherullo, a UM art instructor, will enter work in the exhibition, scheduled for the Seattle Art Museum Pavilion.

Bruce Barton, UM art department chairman, said the Seattle exhibit "is a major exhibition of northwest artists."

Jurors selecting work by Waddell and Cherullo include Richard Bellamy of the Noah Goldowsky Gallery, New York, N.Y.; Kenneth Callahan, an artist, and Doris Shadbolt, curator, both of the Vancouver (B.C.) Art Gallery.
