TEXTS:

Student receives list of music books to order as professor sees needed.

MATERIALS:

Student must bring a flute in working condition. If the student is a music major, they may check out a university flute.

STUDENT OBJECTIVE AND GOALS:

To cover as much technique and tone as possible in the semester. To cover as much material as the student can per semester. To have student perform on student recitals and other venues.

CLASS STRUCTURE:

As each student varies in their ability, it is necessary to teach lessons individually. Each lesson is begun with tonal warmups. Following tone exercises, scales and technical etudes are played. A rhythm book is often used as depends on the student's capabilities. A solo for flute, usually with piano accompaniment is played. Students are encouraged to come with questions each week.

ASSESSMENT:

Grading is traditional letter grade. Student is graded on attendance and amount of progress they make by the end of the semester.

See attachment of Flute Repertoire.
