ARTIST TO SPEAK AT UM

MISSOULA --

George Laisner, a native Czechoslovakian artist, will speak to interested persons Thursday (Nov. 19) at the University of Montana.

The lecture, entitled "What's Happening in Contemporary Art?", is scheduled for the University Center Lounge at 8 p.m.

Laisner's work, which is now on exhibit in the University Gallery, consists primarily of modernistic sculpture, oil paintings and copper enamels.

While holding a teaching position at Washington State University, Pullman, for over 20 years, Laisner has won 23 awards, 15 of which were at the national level.

The exhibit and the lecture are open to the public without charge.
