UM, MSU FACULTY MEET
ON MISSOULA CAMPUS

MISSOULA--

Dr. John F. Lawry, an associate professor of philosophy at the University of Montana, will address faculty philosophy members from UM and Montana State University, Bozeman, on the Missoula campus Saturday (Nov. 21).

Philosophy faculty from both schools and from several colleges in the state are meeting this weekend, with formal papers and discussions scheduled for Saturday at 10 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. in room 303C of the Fine Arts Building.

Dr. Lawry's lecture topic, "What Can One Say to the Underground Man?", alludes to Dostoyevsky's "Notes from the Underground." He will speak at the morning session.

Dr. Norman Marshall, an assistant professor of philosophy at MSU, will discuss "Perception" Saturday afternoon.

Similar previous philosophy meetings have been hosted alternately by UM and MSU.
