$5,000 CAMELLIA BOWL FUND RAISING DRIVE LAUNCHED IN MISSOULA

MISSOULA--

The Grizzly Camellia Bowl Committee has launched a $5,000 fund raising campaign to send 20 University of Montana football players and six UM cheerleaders to the gridiron contest between the University of Montana and the North Dakota State University Bison on Dec. 12.

Col. Tom Davis, chairman of the Grizzly Camellia Bowl Committee, said the fund raising campaign is necessary because UM Coach Jack Swarthout would like to take the entire Grizzly football squad and the cheerleaders to the Sacramento, Calif., contest.

The Camellia Bowl will finance the trip for a total of only 45 UM varsity players, coaches, trainers and equipment managers. Swarthout said he would like to take an additional 20 team members to see or participate in the contest, including varsity footballers who are ineligible to play in the Camellia Bowl because of NCAA academic credit rulings.

Earl Morgenroth said anyone interested in contributing to the fund drive may make checks out to the Camellia Bowl Fund and send them to Don Huggins in care of H.O. Bell and Co., Bill Bouchee in care of the First State Bank, or to Morgenroth in care of KGVO, Missoula, Mont. 59801.

The Camellia Bowl Fund Raising Committee, under the co-chairmanship of Huggins, Bouchee and Morgenroth, will conduct a fund raising blitz drive of the Missoula business district on Dec. 4. Davis pointed out that all contributions are tax deductible.

A public testimonial banquet honoring the UM Grizzlies for their 10-0 win-loss record during the 1970 gridiron season is scheduled for Dec. 8. The banquet is scheduled for 6:30 p.m. at the University Center. Chuck Johnson is banquet chairman.
