U OF M CENTURY CLUB
CANCELS CAMELLIA FLIGHT

MISSOULA--

The University of Montana Century Club has cancelled its Camellia Bowl package flight and is suggesting to its membership that it join with the UM Alumni-Student Flight scheduled to depart from Missoula the evening of Dec. 11 for Sacramento, Calif.

The UM Grizzlies battle the North Dakota State University Bison Dec. 12 in the 10th annual Camellia Bowl football game in Sacramento. Game time is 1:20 p.m. PST.

Dick Chisholm, UM Century Club president, said an insufficient number of club members responded to the reservation deadline of Tuesday to warrant the flight to the Camellia Bowl.

John L. Delano, executive director of the UM Alumni Association, said that all Century Club members who have made reservations on the Century Club Flight will be given top priority for seats on the alumni-student plane. These members will be contacted by telephone.

Delano said the alumni-student flight is also filling slowly and will be cancelled unless seats are filled by noon Friday (Dec. 4). He said reservations should be made with Global Travel Service by phoning 543-7187 or 543-5185 in Missoula.

Prices for the student-alumni flight are $93 for students and $99 for alumni (including those who didn't receive degrees), faculty and Century Club members, including game ticket, lodging (two to a room for alumni and Century Club members) in The Mansion Inn in downtown Sacramento, and transportation to and from the motel, the game and the airport.

The alumni-student flight is scheduled to leave Missoula at 5:45 p.m. MST Dec. 11 and will return Sunday afternoon, Dec. 13. Exact time will be announced soon.
