Requirements

Students are required to

- (a) attend classes and plenary lectures regularly. Excessive unexplained absences (more than two) will result in a zero for attendance and class participation;
- (b) keep up with the assigned reading, bring the text to class, and actively participate in discussion;
- (c) write a short paper on any one text (3-4 pages double-spaced typed), due March 27 in class;
- (d) rewrite the paper, expanding it to include one more text, due May 10 in class;

Quizzes on texts and plenary lectures will be given in class.

Topics for papers must be selected from a list given by me.

Grades

The short paper will be worth 20%, the rewritten paper 25%, class attendance and participation, including quizzes, 30%, the written test 25%.

Except in the case of proven emergency, papers handed in late without prior permission from me, will result in a decreased grade.

If you have any condition, such as a physical or learning disability, that will make it difficult for you to complete the work as I have outlined it, please notify me in the first week of class.
