MISSOULA--

The 1970 Big Sky cross country "Coach of the Year" was selected to the executive committee of the U.S. Cross Country Coaches Association.

Harley Lewis, who has guided University of Montana cross country runners to three conference titles in five years as head coach, said the announcement of the appointment came Monday night from Arne U. Arnesen, president of the association.

Lewis said he will represent the NCAA's seventh district on the committee which encompasses the northern Rocky Mountain area. He said the association selects a representative from each of the NCAA's eight districts.

Lewis' term runs through January 1974 and the UM coach will attend his first meeting next November in Knoxville, Tenn.
