Course Description:

This course introduces the student of public administration to the methods used by public managers in preparing for and conducting research. The course focuses on understanding and applying the various concepts involved in conducting research along with practical skills in developing a research proposal. The course covers the tools of research needed for public managers; how to find and utilize these tools; determining whether research should be done in-house or out-of-house; how to develop a research proposal and a Request for Proposal. All of this is done within the context of what a public manager needs to know regarding research projects within his/her agency, a "how to" course.

Course Objectives:

1. To identify and acquire substantive knowledge and understanding of the traditions of research within public agencies.
2. To understand the research process within public administration in discovering, collecting, and interpreting information in resolving the problems of daily operations.

Required Textbooks:

Using Sources Effectively, Robert Harris, Pyczak Publishing

Other Provided Readings

Course Requirements:

Student participation is an essential element in this course due to the discussions which will take place. During these discussions, students will learn from other students input and analysis. Students are required to read all assigned readings and be prepared to discuss them in class; complete eight (8) writing assignments and complete the Chapter Reviews contained within the textbook. Writing assignments 1, 2, and 3 are worth 50 points each; writing assignments 4, 5, 6, and 7 are worth 30 points each; and writing assignment 8 is worth 100 points. The Chapter Reviews are worth 30 points each except for Chapter 1 which is worth 20 points. The total for the class is 540 points.

Graduate Increment: Graduate students will meet with the instructor to determine their graduate increment.

RESEARCH FOR PUBLIC MANAGERS
Autumn 2008

Writing Assignment Calendar

Writing Assignment 1 – Ethics in Research – (Start 8 Sept 2008 -- Due 12 Sept 2008)

Write a 3 to 5 page paper regarding why ethics are so essential in conducting and reporting research. Be sure to include what a public manager is responsible for and how he/she will ensure ethical standards are a part of their research proposal.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 2 – Tools of Research – (Start 12 Sept 2008 -- Due 19 Sept 2008)

Write a 3 to 5 page paper regarding how a public manager can utilize the "tools of research" in developing his/her proposal and conducting the research. Apply this to your topic.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 3 – Government Documents and Journals – (Start 03 Oct 2008 -- Due 10 Oct 2008)

Write a 3 to 5 page paper that addresses your research proposal. Use at least three different sources from the Government Document and Journals in the UM Mansfield Library that support your proposal. Be sure to present each document and explain why it relates to and impacts your proposal.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 4 – Statement of the Problem – (Start 17 Oct 2008 -- Due 22 Oct 2008)

Write the Statement of the Problem / Introduction for your research proposal. (Review the Class Handout).

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 5 – Hypothesis / Research Question (Start 31 Oct 2008 -- Due 05 November 2008)

Write your hypothesis statement and rationale. Then write the same section as an applied research question.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 6 – Literature Review / Annotated Bibliography – (Start 05 Nov 2008 - - Due 10 Nov 2008)

Research and provide an "annotated bibliography" or a literature review that supports your project. Provide at least 5 entries.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 7 – Data Collection / Survey Instrument – (Start 14 Nov 2008 -- Due 19 November 2008)

Write a methodology section regarding data collection and data analysis. Include your research questionnaire.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.

Writing Assignment 8 – Finalized Information for RFP / Research Proposal – (Start 01 Dec 2008 -- Due 10 December 2008)

Combine and refine your research proposal. Make sure you have all of the elements including whether or not you are seeking a grant to fund the research and the procurement steps you must follow. Also, will you be doing the project in-house or out-of-house.

The paper shall be double spaced, 12 font, left-justified, with one inch margins all-around. You may NOT use contractions (don't, can't, etc) or first person in writing the paper and do not include a title page. Place your name on the first page in the upper left hand corner.

Note: It is understood that you all have other obligations. If you are going to be late, please email me in advance of the deadline.
