Course Content

This course is an introduction to American government and politics. It is designed to provide a foundation for studying and participating in American politics. This class stresses a sophisticated understanding of American political institutions—the rules of the game—and the behavior they induce. It also introduces students to the ideas and practice of modern political science.

Required Texts

There are two required texts: Principles and Practice of American Politics by Kernell and Smith (KS), and the Logic of American Politics by Kernell and Jacobson (KJ). In addition, I will periodically provide supplemental readings drawn from contemporary politics, e.g. newspaper articles. Students are strongly encouraged to read these extra readings as soon as possible, since they may be the topic of class discussions. Course examinations will draw on the textbook readings, supplemental assignments, and class lectures.

Students are required to read all assigned readings, attend all lectures, take two exams, and complete two short writing assignments. The grade breakdown is:

Midterm: 20%
Writing assignments: 20% each
Final: 40%

Class Rules

Do what you ought to do. Turn your cell phones and pagers off. Show up on time and don't leave early. Participate in class discussions. Convince me that you love to learn.

Make-up exams are allowed in the event of illness or death in the family with documentation. There are no excuses for late papers; start papers early and protect yourself against computer failures.

I regrade papers under these conditions: 1) you must wait at least 24 hours before requesting a regrading; 2) you write "I request a regrading" and sign your name. Grades may be adjusted up or down.
