UM SUMMER BUSINESS CURRICULUM TO INCLUDE PERSONAL FINANCE COURSE

MISSOULA--

David W. Weber, associate professor of finance at the University of Montana, will teach a three-credit course titled "Personal Financial Planning and Investment" during the first UM summer session, June 22-July 17.

The course, which will cover principles and concepts involved in the development of a personal investment program, is part of a full schedule of finance, accounting and management courses scheduled for summer session by the UM School of Business Administration.

Application forms as well as course information are contained in the UM summer bulletin; however, "Labor Relations" and "Consumer Law" were added to the curriculum for the second session, July 20-Aug. 5, after the bulletin was published. Both courses will be taught by Art Graham of the management faculty. Each carries three credits.

The bulletin may be obtained from the Summer Programs Office, 125 Main Hall, University of Montana, Missoula, MT 59812; (406) 243-2900. Former UM students should contact the Office of Admissions, (406) 243-6266, for information about re-application.
