COURSE DESCRIPTION & OBJECTIVES

This course is designed to allow students to develop an understanding of public administration as a field of academic study and an area of professional practice. Specifically, it focuses on the evolution of public administration as an academic discipline, the context in which public administration takes place, the meaning of public service in a democratic society, and the importance of personal and professional ethics. The course will be conducted as a seminar. Students must be prepared to discuss reading assignments and participate in analysis of case studies.

The specific competencies developed in PSc 501 are:

- 1) Knowledge of public administration as a field of study
- 2) Knowledge of the political and organization context of public administration
- 3) Knowledge of public administration as a profession
- 4) Written communication
- 5) Awareness of public service values: personal ethics, professional ethics, citizen responsiveness, social responsibility

REQUIRED TEXTS

Public Administration: Concepts and Cases (7th Edition) by Stillman

Classics of Public Administration (4th Edition) edited by Shafritz & Hyde

Public Administration: Annual Editions 2002/03 edited by Howard Balanoff

Bureaucracy by James Q. Wilson (Copies on reserve in the library; you can also purchase copies in the UC Bookstore)

All students are expected to read Bureaucracy during the semester.

COURSE REQUIREMENTS and STRUCTURE

The requirements for the class include a comprehensive final exam and writing a five-page paper, which is described below. The structure of the course will be simple. Each week the class will focus on one major concept of public administration that will be illustrated in the assigned articles. The case study approach will be used to highlight the concepts. STUDENTS ARE RESPONSIBLE FOR ALL ASSIGNED READINGS. After an introduction, students will be asked questions about the readings and the case study. After completing the course, students should understand the major concepts of public administration included in this course.

Grade Weights

Paper	50%	(Due December 9; will be returned on December 16) (Written abstracts from all articles in Annual Editions ; due December 9. All students are also required to write a 5-page book critique of James Q. Wilson's, Bureaucracy , which is also due December 9.)
Article Critiques.....	30%
Participation	20%	(Abstracts and presentations from Classics of Public Administration and Bureaucracy)

Paper

Select one of the following assignments and write a five-page paper. The papers are due on Monday, December 9.

Provide a statement of your personal code of ethics. Include 10 principles in your statement and give an explanation and justification for each of these principles derived from your reading of the pertinent literature.

Select the three concepts that you find most useful or interesting that were included in the course. Write a paper describing why you feel the concepts are so important.

Article Critique Guidelines

The Shafritz and Hyde text contains a variety of articles that will be assigned to students on the first day of class. Part of designated classes will be used for brief oral summaries of the assigned articles. The articles will be assigned to "individual students" and a written summary should be prepared to hand out to the class. The critiques constitute 20 percent of one's final grade. All students are expected to read all of the assigned articles for each class but only have to prepare a written critique for their pre-assigned article.

Each student is responsible to have thoroughly read the article, be prepared to present an overview of the article, and be prepared to respond to questions from the instructor and the class. The total time of the presentation should be no longer than 10 minutes. There are some specific questions one should consider while reading the article and developing a summary.

1. What is the major subject and theme of the article?
2. What is the major question the author addresses?
3. What techniques, tools of analysis, or methods are employed by the author to answer the question?
4. What major points does the author make?
5. What does the author conclude? What suggestions are made?
6. What is the relevance of the article to theory or practice?

Article Abstracts from the Public Administration: Annual Editions Book and Book Report/Critique of James Q. Wilson's book, Bureaucracy.

All students are required to write short abstracts for each of the articles in the Public Administration: Annual Editions book. The abstracts are due on December 9. Samples are on reserve in the library. All students are also required to write a book report/critique of James Q. Wilson's, Bureaucracy. The critique should not exceed 5 pages. Additionally, we will discuss the book, chapter by chapter, on December 2. Students will also be assigned specific chapters for that night, which should be handled in the same manner as the abstracts.

Exam

There will be no formal, written exam
