Required texts available for purchase in UC Bookstore:

Your grade will be based on three exams (each exam is 1/4 of total grade) and class attendance, in-class assignments, and participation (1/4). Students are required to read all assigned readings before the class in which they will be discussed. Coming to class prepared means having read the material carefully and thoughtfully. It means coming to class each day prepared to participate by offering interpretations or questions concerning the readings’ main arguments. Students may miss three classes without explanation. After that, students must bring a typed statement explaining their absence (calling me on the phone is neither sufficient nor necessary). Make a serious effort to get to class on time. If you have a good reason for being late, convey it to me after class. If you come in late, even if you do not have a good reason, make sure you check with me after class so that I can mark you late instead of being absent.

Some recommended readings:

Peri Fletcher. Casa de mis Suenos: Consumption and Identity in a Mexican Village. Westview, April 1999

National Geographic, Special Issue, Emerging Mexico. August 1996
