UM MEN RECEIVE GUTE SCHOLARSHIPS

MISSOULA--

Two University of Montana seniors, Kevin M. Bill of Libby and Peter N. Zimmerman of Missoula, have been awarded $375 Gute Memorial Scholarships for 1981-82.

Bill, who is majoring in health and physical education, has won several other UM awards and has been active in the UM intramural sports programs. He is the son of Lois and Russell Scow of Libby and graduated from Libby Senior High School in 1978.

Zimmerman, a forestry major, who is active in UM forestry school student organizations, has won several major awards from the school. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Zimmerman, Salem, Ohio, and graduated from Salem Senior High School in 1978.

The Gute Scholarship is awarded on the basis of the high moral character of a UM student who has gained the respect of UM faculty and students. The scholarship is given by Mr. and Mrs. J.R. Gute and Dr. James Gute of Owatonna, Minn., and Mrs. Larry Adams, Atlanta, Ga., in memory of their son and brother, Donald, who attended UM in 1961.

The scholarship is given from the more than $150,000 in undergraduate scholarships funded by the UM Foundation. Founded in 1952, the UM Foundation has become the principal source of academic scholarship funds for the University, providing scholarships in virtually every discipline.
