MISSOULIAN RECEIVES BENNETT SCHOLARSHIP

MISSOULA--

Matthew F. Hansen, Missoula, is the 1981-82 winner of the Edward Earl Bennett $1,000 scholarship at the University of Montana.

Hansen was selected by the UM history department. He will be a senior honors student in history in 1981-82. He is the son of Richard and Ripley Hugo, 2407 Wylie St.

The scholarship was established by Harold E. Bennett, Ridgecrest, Calif., in memory of his father, who was a member of the UM history faculty for 33 years. Professor Bennett died in 1970.

The scholarship is given from more than $150,000 in undergraduate scholarships funded by the UM Foundation, the principal source of academic scholarships for the University.

Many of the scholarships honor alumni, parents of students, and other friends of UM. Persons interested in creating scholarships should contact the UM Foundation, 243-2593.
