UM BASSOONIST TO PRESENT RECITAL

Edwin Rosenkranz, professor of music at the University of Montana, will present a bassoon recital Tuesday, Nov. 10, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall on the UM campus.

He will be joined by John Ellis at the piano and William Manning and Tom Kenney on clarinet.

The free concert will consist of Sonata by Hurlstone; Divertimento No. 5, K. Anh. 229 by Mozart; Four Pieces, Op. 25 by Starokadomsky; Sonata, Op. 168 by Saint-Saëns; Variations (on an arietta by Pergolesi) by Otmar Nussio; and Sonata by G. Besozzi.

The last work was edited by William Waterhouse, with whom Rosenkranz studied last year in London while on sabbatical from the University. Waterhouse is a principal bassoonist with the British Broadcasting Corporation orchestra.

Rosenkranz holds a doctorate from Colorado State College. He studied bassoon with Simon Kovar of the New York Philharmonic and Sol Schoenbach of the Philadelphia Orchestra. He also studied composition with Cecil Effinger at the University of Colorado and theory and composition with Dr. Bela Rozsa, a student of Bela Bartok.

Rosenkranz teaches theory, orchestration and bassoon at the UM.
