TEXT: American Government: The Essentials (8th Edition), by Wilson and DiIulio

COURSE DESCRIPTION

PSc 100 is intended to introduce students to the fundamentals of American National Government. The course includes an examination of basic American political principles and practices, the Constitution, major institutions, and civil liberties. The objective of this course is to acquaint students with the complexities of the American political system.

Grade Weights

Test 150% March 29 (Thursday)

Test 2 50% May 3 (Thursday)

Test 3 (Optional) ...TBA in SS 356 (Date not available at this time)

Grade Ranges: A = 90-100; B = 80-89; C = 70-79; D = 60-69; F = any grade below 60.

EXAMS: All exams will be objective tests (true/false and multiple choice).

Test 3 is OPTIONAL, based on your satisfaction with your grade after Test 2. Test 1 and Test 2 are not comprehensive; Test 3 will be comprehensive (that is, include specific material from the entire semester). If you select to take Test 3, each test is weighted as one-third.

MAKE-UP EXAM POLICY: All students are expected to take the exams at the times specified above. Make-up exams will be given in the event of extenuating circumstances. Students must make prior arrangements by calling either the Political Science Department office (243-5202) or my office (243-6181) and leaving a message. Make-up exams will be not be the same tests given during the scheduled time.

NOTE: Tentatively, no class will be held on February 27 due to a conference that I will be attending in Dayton, Ohio. Spring Break is March 19-23. The Teaching Assistant (TA) for this section of PSc 100 is Jeff Christiansen. His office is located in Corbin 345; his office hours will be assigned during the first week of class.
