UM STUDENT TO PRESENT CONCERT OF ORIGINAL WORKS

John Boyle, a senior in music composition at the University of Montana, will present a program of original works Wednesday, Nov. 18, at 8 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall on the UM campus.

The free concert will include compositions for woodwind and string ensembles, piano pieces and an orchestral work.

Boyle came to the UM from Los Angeles, Calif., and plans to return to the LA area upon graduation to look for career opportunities in film music and arranging.

He is a student of Dr. Donald O. Johnston, professor of music.
