Course Overview

BGEN 361 Principles of Business Law is a freshman level 3 credit hour course offered in the College of Business designed to provide a broad overview of business law. The course is designed to be consistent with The University of Montana College of Business’s mission and Assessment and Assurance of Learning Standards.
Pre-requisites
Junior standing in Business (i.e., no freshmen or sophomores), meaning that one of the following is required: (i) completion of the primary lower-core business courses with a “C-” or better and a GPA of at least 2.0 in the primary lower-core business courses, or (ii) permission from the College of Business Advising Office. In the alternative, a junior minor in Business will satisfy the pre-requisites, with “junior minor in Business” defined as a student who has met all requirements for, applied to, and been accepted to the Business Minor.

Course Description and Learning Goals/Objectives
To develop a familiarization with the basic legal issues encountered by anyone starting and/or operating a business. Many of you may never be involved in starting a business, but understanding the start-up process provides a logical platform for covering the business/legal environment in this introductory course. We will plan to cover the following topics and expect you to have a basic understanding of the following:

- Legal System: US compared to other legal systems, sources of law, judicial process, the role of the US Constitution in the regulation of business, alternative dispute resolution.
- Business Organization Issues: Partnerships, Limited Partnerships, LLPs, LLCs, S Corp, C Corp, operating a corporation (structure, dealing with shareholders and board members), choosing between various business entities, and “going public.”
- Contract Issues: Elements of a contract, common law contracts, UCC contracts, impact of governmental regulation on consumer contracts (including state consumer protection laws).
- Employment Issues: Hiring issues (affirmative action, discrimination, ADA), sexual harassment, employment at will, wrongful discharge, workers’ compensation insurance, unionization issues.
- Tort Liability: Distinctions between negligent, intentional and strict liability torts; insuring liability through auto, homeowner, CGL, D&O, E&O and umbrella liability policies.
- Money Issues: Secured transactions under UCC Article 9, Bankruptcy, and possibly Foreign Corrupt Practices Act.
- Property Issues: Intellectual property law (trademarks, patents, copyrights, trade secrets), real property (listings, contracts of sale, title insurance, real estate financing, encumbrances, environmental liability), lessor-lessee issues in a commercial setting.
- Ethics: Distinction between legal and ethical issues.
- Business Regulation: Society’s endless pursuit of the appropriate amount of government regulation of business – the so-called “Goldilocks Principle.”

UM Equal Access Policy Statement
The University of Montana assures equal access to instruction through collaboration between students with disabilities, instructors, and Disability Services for Students. If you think you may have a disability adversely affecting your academic performance, and you have not already registered with Disability Services, please contact Disability Services in Lommasson Center 154 or 406.243.2243. I will work with you and Disability Services to provide an appropriate modification.
Academic Misconduct Statement

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the University. The University of Montana Student Conduct Code specifies definitions and adjudication processes for academic misconduct and states, “Students at the University of Montana are expected to practice academic honesty at all times.”

(Section V.A., available at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php). All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. It is the student’s responsibility to be familiar the Student Conduct Code.

Mission Statement and Assurance of Learning

The University of Montana’s College of Business enhances lives and benefits society by providing a world-class business education in a supportive, collegial environment.

We accomplish this mission by acting on our shared core values of creating significant experiences, building relationships, teaching and researching relevant topics, behaving ethically, and inspiring individuals to thrive.

As part of our assessment process and assurance-of-learning standards, the School of Business Administration has adopted the following learning goals for our undergraduate students:

Learning Goal 1: COB graduates will possess fundamental business knowledge.
Learning Goal 2: COB graduates will be able to integrate business knowledge.
Learning Goal 3: COB graduates will be effective communicators.
Learning Goal 4: COB graduates will possess problem solving skills.
Learning Goal 5: COB graduates will have an ethical awareness.
Learning Goal 6: COB graduates will be proficient users of technology.
Learning Goal 7: COB graduates will understand the global business environment in which they operate.

Required Course Materials

The main text for this course is an electronic text (eText) and can be accessed on the Moodle course page by clicking on the Pearson website link (http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/).

The latest version of the eText was written/edited by Professor Furniss and Professor Harrington and is published by Pearson. It comes with interactive exercises, videos, and discussion boards through Pearson’s MyBusinessLawLab platform on Pearson’s website.
registering with Pearson, please use the Pearson MyBusLawLab Course ID # provided by Professor Furniss on Moodle.

The eText will be used extensively for readings, course discussions, and activities found on MyBusLawLab and Moodle.

To gain access to MyBusinessLawLab which includes the eText and online exercises, obtain your Access Code through RedShelf, which is found on your Moodle course home page. (RedShelf is a system that charges your student UM Business Services account for MyBusLawLab so that you do not have to buy access separately through the bookstore or with a credit card; more instructions explaining how the RedShelf purchasing system works are posted on Moodle under the RedShelf link.)

Copy down the Access Code (from Redshelf on Moodle) and then go to the Pearson website http://www.pearsonmylabandmastering.com/northamerica/ and sign up for the MyBusLawLab course using the Course ID # provided by Professor Furniss on Moodle.

Don’t Have A Pearson Account? If you do not already have a Pearson student account, register for an account as a Student by following the instructions on Pearson’s website. You will be asked for your Course ID (provided by Professor Furniss on Moodle) and Access Code (for payment; found on Moodle using the Redshelf link).

Already Have A Pearson Account? If you already have a Pearson account, then log in. Once logged in, click on the Enroll in a Course button (top right) and enter the Course ID (provided by Professor Furniss on Moodle) and Access Code (for payment; found on Moodle using the Redshelf link).

Weekly Activities
Please follow the Weekly schedule on Moodle for each week so that you can keep up with your readings, weekly discussion board questions, and interactive exercises and quizzes in Moodle and MyBusLawLab.

Finding Moodle: You may reach the Moodle login page from the College of Business website at https://moodle.umt.edu/login/index.php.

Problems With Moodle? Talk to the Student Lab monitors in the Gallagher Business Building (Computer Lab on the 2nd floor).

UM Email Rules
Based on The University of Montana policy, students must use their GrizMail accounts (netid@grizmail.umt.edu or fname.lname@umontana.edu ) to communicate with me or my assistants. The umontana address is automatically forwarded to the GrizMail address. (Because of this university policy, we cannot respond to other emails sent by you. For instance, if you send us an email using hotmail or gmail, we will respond by asking you to resend your email via your umontana account.)

Exams
Three examinations will be given online through the MyBusLawLab website. (There is no final exam in this course.) The exams will not be cumulative. The examinations may cover the recorded chapter lectures, assigned e-text chapter readings, videos, Moodle assignments, and MyBusLawLab assignments/weekly discussions.

Exams are taken on Pearson’s MyBusLawLab website and are scheduled per the Master Schedule found on your Moodle course page.
