AREA MUSIC STUDENTS TO COMPETE

First-place winners from six state auditions of the Music Teachers National Association High School and Collegiate Artist Competition will compete in the Northwest Divisional Auditions on the University of Montana campus Feb. 6. Wyoming, Montana, Idaho, Washington, Oregon and Alaska will be represented.

The competition will take place from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. in the Music Recital Hall. It is open to the public free of charge.

Area students who will be competing are Patricia Lambros, first-place winner in the state high school vocal competition; Tim Campbell, first-place winner of the collegiate artist vocal competition in Montana; and Barbara Beck, first-place winner in the collegiate artist piano competition in Montana.

Lambros is a student of George Lewis, professor, University of Montana. Campbell is a student of Esther England, associate professor at the UM. Beck is a student of Steven Hesla, assistant professor at the UM.
