UM ENROLLMENT STABLE

MISSOULA--

Winter-quarter enrollment at the University of Montana stands at 8,711, UM Registrar Phil Bain announced. This is a net figure, which takes account of drops and adds during the first three weeks of classes, he said.

The student count winter quarter compares to 8,869 fall quarter, which represents a normal dip from fall to winter, Bain said.

He said no major changes showed up in the ratio of men to women and full-time to part-time students or other characteristics of the student body.
