MUSI 102A Section 21  Performance Area: Voice
Professor: Anne Basinski
Music 10
243-6889

Course Objectives:
To develop skills needed to use the voice as an instrument: to improve breath support, resonance, and diction. To increase the student’s musical skills, both in learning music and delivering an expressive performance. To learn how the voice works and how to care for it, and to develop an analytical ear for others’ vocal work.

Course Activities:
Exercises and vocalizes to develop breathing, resonance and diction

Attendance:
Since these are one on one working sessions, you must let the professor know in advance if you will miss. If you do not, you will drop a letter grade for each instance. Even with notice given, after three absences, you will drop a letter grade for each additional absence.

Grading:
- Preparation 25%
- Progress 25%
- Journal 25%
- Performance 25%

This class amply fulfills the Criteria and SLO for Perspective One: Expressive Arts. As listed in the course activities, all of the criteria and SLO are covered.

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by course instructor and/or a disciplinary sanction by the university. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://life.umt.edu/SA/VPSA/studentconduct.php
