GERMAN CULTURE COURSE OFFERED EVENINGS AT UM

A course on German cultural history to 1900 will be offered spring quarter at the University of Montana. The class will meet from 7:30 to 9:30 p.m. in Room 336 of the Liberal Arts Building on Thursdays beginning April 1.

The course will have 10 lectures addressing topics in German social history, art and literature that have had significant impacts on the Germans' understanding of their own national history. Slides will be presented at several lectures.

In addition to regular students, who may take the course for two quarter-hour credits, the public may attend the course as auditors, according to Gertrud Lackschewitz, professor of German, the instructor.
