Aim

This course is designed as a continuation of Grad Acting II, applying techniques and theories learned in that course to intensive scene work. Material will continue to engage with the concept of action through choice, intention, and emotion. This also includes the concepts of playing character: out of self (Objectives) and into the other (Tactics) The course will also introduce the writing and journaling process that will culminate in the third year final creative project for actors and directors.

By the end of the semester you must...

- Integrate physical and vocal skills learned in co-requisite course work into text and actions explored in the studio.
- Expand strategies for dynamic partner interaction and character development.
- Address the continued growth and needs identified in mid-year graduate student reviews.
- Articulate your preparatory, studio, and rehearsal processes—orally and in writing—at an advanced, professional level.

Attendance and Promptness

As a graduate level acting course there are no un-excused absences. Unexcused absences drop the final grade a third of a letter and so on. Two late arrivals equal one absence.

Grading Scale and Breakdown

Grades will be determined by attendance, involvement, intellectual and creative contribution to the process, engagement, and preparedness.

A	100 – 90%
B	89 – 80%
C	79 – 70 %
D	69 – 60%
F	59 and Below

Participation:	20%
Writing/Research:	40%
Performances	40%

Assessment

Performance grades are my evaluation of how your skills have developed over the course of the semester:

- A Superb Acting. The student has transcended the level of craft they brought to the course, mastered the intellectual preparation, and has begun to play imaginatively “in the moment.”
- B Good Skills. The student has mastered the intellectual preparation necessary to move on to more advanced skills, made some basic advances in craft, but is not yet playing fully “in the moment.”
- C Fair Work. The student is prepared intellectually for the work, and is making progress with some skills, but stronger choices could be made and more practice is necessary.
- D Poor work. The student has not or is not prepared for the work and it is painfully obvious to both the student and audience.
- F Failure. The student has not or is not prepared at all, has made no specific choices, and is wasting theirs and the audience’s time.

Procedure/Policy

You are expected to abide by the following School regulations. There is no eating, drinking, or gum chewing during class. Please let me know in writing if you have a medical exception to this policy. Water in a capped container is acceptable. Absolutely no weapons, real or fake, are allowed in the classroom.

There is inherent risk involved in many Theatre classes, as they are very physical in nature. Please proceed through class and rehearsals with caution. Always be mindful of your personal safety and the safety of others. Students participating in classes, rehearsals, and performances do so at their own risk.

Due to safety considerations, at no point during a student's time spent in class or serving on a production (in any capacity) should non-enrolled persons be guests of that student without my consent. Presence of such unauthorized persons in a class, shop, or any backstage/off-stage area will negatively affect a student's grade.

Academic Misconduct and the Student Conduct Code

All students must practice academic honesty. Academic misconduct is subject to an academic penalty by the course instructor and/or disciplinary sanction by the University. All students need to be familiar with the Student Conduct Code. The Code is available for review online at http://www.umt.edu/vpsa/policies/student_conduct.php.
