UM STUDENT IS SPEAKER AT HOME ECONOMICS MEETING

MISSOULA--

Susan Gust, the national chairman of the Student Member Section of the American Home Economics Association, was a guest speaker at the annual meeting of the Washington Home Economics Association in Spokane April 23 and 24. The theme of the meeting was "Home Economics, Focus on the Future."

Gust, a senior home economics major at the University of Montana, spoke on the topic "Stand Up for Home Economics." She also spoke about the organization and purpose of the student section and how it relates to AHEA. In addition, Gust participated in an officer training session where she emphasized the responsibilities and expectations of effective leadership.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Gust of Big Timber.
