RECENT UM GRADS NAME SMITH
"MOST INSPIRATIONAL TEACHER"

MISSOULA--

University of Montana alums who graduated in 1980-81 who were asked to name the most inspirational teacher of their college years have given the most votes to Richard K. Smith, professor of finance in the School of Business Administration.

The "Most Inspirational Teacher" award will be presented at commencement exercises scheduled in the Harry Adams Field House Sunday, June 13. Smith will receive $500 and have his name inscribed on a plaque in the foyer of the Maureen and Mike Mansfield Library on campus.

Smith came to the UM faculty from private industry in 1965. He holds an MBA from Harvard.

The poll of graduates with a year's perspective on their college careers is conducted annually by Silent Sentinel senior honorary.
